

Chapter eighteen terrifying teddy bears!

The giants are scared of Mr Snout, the teddy...

1. Why do you think they're scared?
2. How do you think Harvey feels? How can you tell?
3. Write a letter from Harvey to Mr Snout. What would Harvey want to tell his best cuddly friend after the giants have been throwing him around the room?

Do you have a favourite toy?

Can you write a short story where other characters get scared of your toy? Who are your characters? Why are they scared?

Chapter twenty Spot the mistakes

The giants struggle to put on a good performance for Ms Sugar Plum..

But can you spot the mistakes in these sentences from chapter twenty? (There's one mistake in each line)

1. Mistress Ring was who she said she was.
2. Both dead and alive at the same time, this most terrifying creature was once a living elephant.
3. "I think Mistress Ring wants to steal Walloping Toenail."
4. I found Norma eating a pile of sausages at the back of the dining hall.
5. Norma is so grumpy, I should have known she'd say I'd be jealous.
6. I followed the others onto the stage Mr Ogg had built for us. It teetered in the middle of the school dining hall.
7. The twins flung each other around in a pretty good foxtrot.
8. Mr Ogg's bassoon bassooned the cancan tune
9. The stage filled with confetti.
10. Giants should not wear pink tutus with pink leotards.

ANSWERS

Chapter twenty Spot the mistakes

The giants struggle to put on a good performance for M Sugar Plum..

But can you spot the mistakes in these sentences from chapter twenty? (There's one mistake in each line)

1. Mistress Ring wasn't who she said she was.
2. Both dead and alive at the same time, this most gentle creature was once a living elephant.
3. "I think Mistress Ring wants to steal Norma Enormous."
4. I found Norma eating a pile of swamp snails at the back of the dining hall.
5. Norma is so competitive, I should have known she'd say I'd be jealous.
6. I followed the others onto the stage Mr Ogg had built for us. It teetered in the middle of the the stomping ground behind the castle
7. The twins flung each other around in a pretty good disco dancing duet.
8. Mr Ogg's trumpet trumpeted the cancan tune
9. The stage filled with smoke
10. Giants should not wear sludge-brown tutus with sludge-brown leotards.